ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
1.	The defendant shall not be involved with gang activity or possess gang paraphernalia. The Court excludes from this prohibition the tattoo that was the subject of the sentencing hearing.

During a home contact on May 1, 2014, the probation officer observed, in plain view, photographs attached to lanyards, in Mr. Williams' bedroom. Upon closer inspection, Mr. Williams was observed to be in all 19 photographs. Each photograph depicted Mr. Williams, and various associates, "throwing" gang signs. When asked by the probation officer about these photographs, Mr. Williams reported he would frequent various clubs in the Nashville area, between the time period of 2009-2010, and photographs were taken at these establishments. He would then purchase the photographs, attached to lanyards, and wear them in the various clubs for the remainder of the evening(s). The probation officer pointed out that Mr. Williams, as well as the other individuals in the photographs, were throwing gang signs, and inquired as to why he would still have these items, knowing one of his special conditions prohibited the possession of gang paraphernalia. Mr. Williams was adamant the photographs were several years old and were not gang paraphernalia. The probation officer seized all 19 photographs from his residence.

It was later determined that the hand-signs depicted in the photographs are linked to the Gangster Disciples and Black P-Stone Nation gangs.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Alex Williams is unemployed and lives with his sister in Nashville, Tennessee. While in residency at the halfway house in Nashville, prior to his release, Mr. Williams was injured at his employment. He has been unable to seek employment, due to medical appointments and physical therapy, related to his injury. Mr. Williams began his term of supervised release on August 23, 2013, and his supervision is due to terminate August 22, 2016.

A report was submitted to the Court on November 6, 2013, regarding Mr. Williams violation of moving without giving prior notification to the probation officer. The Court ordered no action on November 7, 2013. Mr. Williams was re-instructed to not move from his reported address without giving prior notification to the probation officer.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

The probation officer is requesting that no additional action be taken by the Court at this time. It is recommended that Mr. Williams remain on supervised release and not incur any future violations. The Assistant U.S. Attorney Scarlett Singleton has been advised of the offender's noncompliance and is in agreement with this recommendation.
